

I resent reciving call from people trying to sell something I don't want. I resent people using my phone that I pay for to run their business.If I want to do business with someone I will call them. I think this should be stoped. What really makes me mad is when they tie up my line with a recording. Thank You